Anderson Construction Group Named #10th Fastest Growing Private Company in 2009

Seattle, Wash. – Anderson Construction Group, Inc. (ACG) was named the #10th Fastest Growing Private Company in Washington State by the Puget Sound Business Journal (PSBJ) in its annual Fastest Growing Private Company list in 2009. ACG was ranked in the 10th position for sales growth over 2006-2008 with an increase of 328%.

The Fastest-Growing Private Companies program was launched 15 years ago by the PSBJ to identify and recognize companies speeding to the top of their industries. To be eligible, companies must: be privately held and headquartered in Washington; have at least $500,000 in net revenue in 2006; show an overall growth from 2006 to 2008 fiscal years; and agree to have their CPA confirm their net operating revenues with the PSBJ and the PSBJ's accounting partner, RSM McGladrey.

“Barely missing the List last year at #106 and now making the List in such a phenomenal position this year is very exciting and something that all of our team can be extremely proud of,” said D. Chad Quilici, principal at ACG. “Our strong foundation and solid people keep moving us forward even in an unforgiving economy. It’s a big honor that validates our commitment of making our company a leader in our industry.”

About Anderson Construction Group, Inc: Building custom homes and commercial projects around the Puget Sound region of Washington State, ACG's dynamic team is ready for the challenge of the most complex of projects. ACG exceeds the most demanding of expectations, while injecting resourcefulness and integrity into every project. With a focus on professional project management and the uncommon understanding of today's technical building systems and applications, ACG builds beyond its competitors. The results of this finely tuned process are always the same- buildings that positively shine. This approach has led ACG to the forefront of construction around the Seattle area and ultimately to the Fastest Growing Private Company List. The Master Builder's Association honored ACG in 2009 with its top award- The Best Major Residential Renovation in King & Snohomish counties. For more information visit ACG at www.andersoncg.com
